2. The Chairman indicated that the IC Staff would deliver to all members a blank three-month calendar. The members were requested to fill in the dates of planned meetings or events which would be of interest to the Task Force and return the completed calendar by noon on 14 October. The IC Staff would then consolidate the data submitted and reissue the calendar of upcoming events.

25X1A 3. [REDACTED] then reviewed possible issues and agreed to form a matrix of issues covering the Intelligence Community, CIA, and the Congress which can be filled in as appropriate with pithy comments. Desire was to have format completed by 1500 hours, 14 October.

25X1A 4. [REDACTED] then circulated a package of nine papers covering issue options and actions. The Chairman requested that the membership review the options and be prepared to discuss them at the next meeting which is scheduled for 1500 hours on 14 October 1975.
